

Texas Federation of Music Clubs
District VII
Minutes of the Spring Board Meeting
April 28, 2007
Corpus Christi, Texas

Karla Clack, acting District President, called the meeting to order with the Federation Hymn and Pledge of Allegiance. Karla thanked Corpus Christi for hosting the District meeting.

LaJuan Fischer, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting. The minutes were approved as read. The District clubs present were Alice Music Study Club, Corpus Christi Thursday Music Club, and Music Club of Kingsville.

Ruby Neely gave the Treasurer's report. The balance as of April 28, 2007, was $1,297.42.

Each club present gave president's reports. Mary Tryer gave the McAllen Music Club report, in the absence of the McAllen Club.

Joyce Wilcox and Beverly Naismith entertained the group with two duets on the piano and violin.

Mary Tryer, Chairperson of the Constitution Committee, read the Constitution prepared by the committee, discussed each item and corrections were made. The revised constitution will be sent to each club for further discussion. Maxine Walker commended and thanked Mary Tryer and her committee for the work done on the constitution.

Julia Smith, nomination committee Chairperson, presented the slate of officers for the term of 2007-2009. They were:
President, LaJuan Fischer
Vice-President, Joyce Wilcox
Secretary, Nancy Haugh
Treasurer, Ruby Neely

Mary Tryer made a motion to accept the slate of officers as read. The motion was seconded and approved.

Joyce Wilcox reported on the accident and injury of Bill Bunch and asked for prayer for him and his family during his recovery. LaJuan Fischer reported on the accident and injury of Margaret Mumme and asked for prayer for her and her family as well.

The group assembled again after a very delicious lunch. Dr. Elwood H. Brown introduced David E. Pinter, a student of Dr. Brown's, with high praise. Carolyn Bain accompanied David on the piano. It was a joy to listen to David's strong baritone voice.
